

CHARTER OF BULGARIAN SOCIETY OF FORENSIC MEDICINE

I. General

Statute

Article 1.

(1) The Society is an independent legal entity that unites Bulgarian and foreign individuals whose professional activities or interests are related to the development of forensic medicine or medical specialties related to forensic medicine and other individuals who share the goals of the association and the means to achieving and accepting the charter of the society.

(2) The society is a legal entity separate from its members and established pursuant to the laws of Republic of Bulgaria.

3. The association is responsible for its obligations with its property.

4. Members of the association are not liable for the obligations of the association.

5. Members are responsible for payment of membership fees.

Name

Article 2.

The name of the society is "BULGARIAN SOCIETY OF FORENSIC MEDICINE".

(2) The name of the society can be written in Latin: "Bulgarian Society of Forensic Medicine" (BSFM).

(3) The name of the association, together with an indication of the the court, where registered and the court registration number and BULSTAT must be indicated in correspondence of the society

Headquarters

Article 3.

The main seat and address of the society is 1431, Sofia, Bulgaria, Triaditsa district, Zdrave str. 2, office1.

Determination of activity

Article 4.

(1) The association operates private benefit.

(2) The principal activities of the association are:

1. Contributes to the development of forensic medicine for acquiring new scientific and practical knowledge, improving the quality of forensic medicine, professional competence, reliability, transparency and independence of the assessment activities of vocational training in forensic medicine;

2. Assists the continuous professional development of doctors with medical specialty in forensic medicine and allied medical specialties and adequate valuation of acquired professional qualifications, is acting to implement the acquired professional knowledge and skills in their daily professional practice;

3. Maintains the professional rights of persons working in the field of forensics;
4. Helps acquaintance, dissemination, implementation and development of modern advances in forensic medicine and related medical specialties and activities;
5. Implementation of activities to introduce in the Republic of Bulgaria on internationally accepted principles and norms in the field of forensic medicine and related medical specialties and activities;
6. Helps to promote high professional criteria and professional ethics in the field of forensic medicine and related health professions;
7. Participates in the preparation of draft medical standards, rules of good medical practice, algorithms and standards for valuation of activities related to forensic medicine as a practice and profession;
8. Protects the rights and represents the interests of members within the legal competence before all institutions in health care, and other state and municipal authorities, public and business organizations;
9. Organizes national and international scientific events - congresses, conferences, symposia, etc.;
10. Prepares opinions on draft legislation, medical standards, rules of good medical practice guidelines, decisions and others in the field of activity;
11. Prepares and submits to the competent authorities opinions on the problems of forensic medicine and related health professions;
12. Takes action in protecting their members for violations by various bodies and organizations;
13. Performs collaboration with various authorities, institutions, individuals and / or legal entities and international organizations in order to achieve the object and purpose of the association incl. to provide sponsorship and other conditions of partnership;
14. Establishes international cooperation and partnerships with similar organizations;
15. Participates in projects related to forensic medicine and related medical specialties;
16. Performs all other activities permitted by law within its jurisdiction.

(3) Assists the effective operation of its members:

- a) provides information to their members and maintain good coordination network;
- b) collects and maintains data collections on current national and international legislation and any other information in the sphere of activity of the society;
- c) prepares and distributes scientific and informational materials, maintain contacts with the media;
- d) establishes contacts and contribute to the establishment of equal and fair relations with state bodies and public organizations.

Main objectives of the society

Article 5.

(1) The main objectives of the society are:

1. Development of a high standard of forensic medicine and related specialties;

2. Develops programs and projects to raise the professional level of its members and achieve the highest level of training and practicing in the specialty of forensic medicine and related specialties;
 3. Distribution of new methods in the field of forensic medicine and related specialties;
 4. Cooperation of the Society and its members with similar organizations abroad - for the fastest transfer of the achievements of forensic medicine and related fields in the Republic of Bulgaria;
 5. Development of international relations and implementation of international contacts with other organizations at home and abroad;
 6. Assists in maintaining and upgrading the qualifications of doctors with medical specialty in forensic medicine and related specialties;
 7. Protecting the interests of society members and the establishment of fair relations between them;
 8. Contributes to the development and updating of standards and quality assessment in the sphere of its activity.
- (2) The society is a legal entity that arises from the day of its listing.
- (3) The society shall freely determine the means of achieving their goals.

Term

Article 6.

The society is not limited by time or other termination condition.

II. Membership

Article 7.

Membership in the society is voluntary. Members can be Bulgarian and foreign individuals whose professional activities or interests are related to the development of forensic or medical specialties related to forensics medicine and other individuals who share the goals of the association and the means of achieving them and the chart of the society.

Article 8.

Members of the society are:

1. Regular;
2. Honorary;
3. Associates.

Article 9.

(1) A regular member of the society can be legally capable Bulgarian or foreign individual who meets the requirements of this charter, and is not honorary or associate member under the same.

(2) Honorary member of the society can be a Bulgarian or foreign citizen with a particularly large contribution to the development of forensic medicine or with proven contribution to the subject of activity, goals and objectives of the society.

(3) Associate member of the society can be a student of forensic medicine or other medical specialties whose interests are related to the development of forensic medicine.

Article 10.

(1) Regular members are entitled to one vote in the General Assembly and entitled to participate in the bodies of the society.

(2) Honorary and Associate Members are entitled to a deliberative vote in the General Assembly and cannot be elected in the bodies of the society.

(3) Regular members of the society pay an annual membership fee to participate in the association, as well as fees for participation in events organized by the society.

(4) Honorary members are exempt from annual membership fees as well as fees for participation in scientific events organized by the society.

(5) Associate members of the society pay an annual membership fee fixed by the General Assembly, as well as fees for participation in events organized by the society.

(6) The membership fee is determined by the General Assembly.

Membership rights and obligations

Article 11.

Members of the society, unless otherwise stipulated in this charter, are entitled:

1. To participate in the activities of the society and in the General Assembly;
2. To elect and be elected to its governing bodies;
3. To supervise the work of the society and the management bodies;
4. Be informed about the activities of the society;
5. To benefit from the assets of the society and the results of its operations;
6. To participate in all activities and events of the society;
7. To make proposals in connection with the activities of the society;
8. receive distributed by the association information materials;
9. To receive from the society support and protect their creative and professional rights and interests within the jurisdiction of the society;
10. To put to the organs of governance issues related to the activities of the society;
11. To assign discussions on issues of common interest.

Article 12.

Members of the association in accordance with the provisions of this charter, must:

1. comply with the Charter of the society and to work towards achieving its objectives;
2. work to increase the property of the society and raise its public authority and prestige;
3. implement the decisions of the General Assembly and other bodies of the society;
4. assist in achieving the goals and objectives of the society;
5. pay a membership fee and the deadlines set by the General Meeting, fees to participate in events organized by the society, and any additional cash contributions;
6. comply with professional ethics in relationships with other members of the society;

7. not operate contrary to the objectives, interests and activities of the society;

8. not use in any way the society to achieve goals contrary to charter.

Article 13.

For active work, members of the society are encouraged to moral and material prizes which essence is decided by the Management Board (MB) under a procedure established by the General Assembly (GA) of the society.

Article 14.

The rights and obligations are non-transferable and do not pass on to others in the event of death or termination of membership.

Acquisition and termination of membership

Article 15.

(1) Members of the society are accepted by the Management Board. Applicants submit a written application to the Board, stating the type of membership applied for, as to it the relevant documents.

(2) Applications for membership in the society, together with relevant documents may be filed electronically.

(3) The Board shall register the request of the applicant and notify them in written or electronically to its regular admission and registration number.

(4) The Board shall decide on the submitted application for membership at its next meeting but not later than four months after its receipt and notify in written or electronically applicant of its decision.

(5) Membership is effective after the decision of the Board.

(6) Refusal of membership could be appeal by the person concerned before the General Assembly within a month of the decision of the Board.

Article 16.

(1) Membership is terminated:

1. by a unilateral statement to the society, provided that the one willing to leave the society has fulfilled their obligations of membership;

2. death or judicial disability of individuals, members of the association;

3. exclusion;

4. failure;

(2) A member of the society can be expelled at:

1. systematically breach of their obligations under the Charter;

2. the non-payment of their fee without good reason - after the expiry of 12 / twelve / months;

3. damaging the good name of the association;

4. motivated proposal of the Ethics committee.

(3) The decision to exclude is taken by the Board of the society. The decision can be appealed to the General Assembly within seven days of its announcement, but not later than one year from the date of the decision.

(4) Membership is recovering under Art. 15 of these charter.

III. PROPERTY

Article 17.

Society property consists of money, property, real estate, property rights, intellectual property rights, property contributions by members, claims and other rights according to the current legislation.

Sources of funds of the society

Article 18.

(1) At the general meeting members of the society can make targeted contributions to achieve a certain goal set by the statutes or by decision of the General Assembly. In its judgment, the General Assembly defines the purpose, amount and method of collecting contributions. The decision is taken by a majority of 2/3 of the members of the society.

(2) Members of the society can provide it with funds in the form of a loan or real estates and certain chattels rental.

(3) The interest rate on loans or rents under par. 2 shall be determined by the General Assembly.

(4) The society, in the face of the Management Board may receive donations from individuals and legal entities and to conclude contracts for sponsorship.

Article 19.

The society raises funds for its activities from:

1. the annual membership fee;
2. targeted additional contributions;
3. donations, legacies and sponsorship;
4. scientific, research, training activity;
5. additional economic activity, according to the Charter;
6. other sources.

Article 20.

(1) The Society carries on business related to its objects and the revenues are used to achieve the objectives of the Charter object and purpose. Business is subject to the terms and conditions determined by the laws regulating the respective type of business. The Society does not distribute profit.

(2) The implementation and control of business activities is assigned to the Management Board of the society.

Article 21.

The funds of the association are spent as intended, according to the budget of the association.

IV. Management

Bodies of the association

Article 22.

The bodies of the association are the General Assembly, Management Board, Supervisory Board and Ethics Committee.

Members of the General Assembly

Article 23

(1) The General Assembly shall comprise all members of the association with a right to vote. With deliberative voting rights in the General Assembly may participate honorary and associate members.

(2) The members of the association participate in the General Meeting personally or by commissioner.

Representation

Article 24

(1) The Commissioner may only be an individual.

(2) The warrants were issued specifically for participation in the General Assembly with explicit indication of voting on agenda items.

(3) Commissioners cannot authorize their rights to third parties.

(4) The commissioners may represent no more than one member of the Society in the General Assembly.

Competence of the General Assembly

Article 25

(1) General Assembly:

1. amend the Charter of the Society;
2. adopt other internal acts;
3. transform and terminate the society;
4. hear appeals against decisions of the Management Board for adoption and off members of the society;
5. elect and dismiss members of the Management Board and its Chairperson, Honorary Chairperson, two Deputy Chairpersons and Secretary;
6. elect and dismiss members of the Supervisory Board and its Chairperson;
7. decide on the opening and closing of branches;
8. decide on participation in other organizations;
9. adopt the guidelines and programs of activities of the society;
10. adopt the budget of the society;
11. decide on the amount of the membership fee or property contributions;
12. accepts the Report of the Board;

13. revoke decisions of the Management Board when they contradict the law and the Charter;
 14. discharge to the members of the Board;
 15. determine the remuneration of the members of the Board;
 16. discuss and take decisions on all major issues in the activities of the society;
 17. revoke decisions of other organs of the society contrary to the law, the Statute or other internal acts regulating the activities of the association.
- (2) The rights under par. 1, p. 1, 3, 5, 10, 12 and 17 cannot be assigned to other bodies of the society.
- (3) The decisions of the organs of the association taken contrary to law, statute or a previous decision of the General Assembly may be challenged before the general meeting at the request of interested members of the society or its body made within one month of learning but no later than one year from the date of the decision.
- (4) Disputes in the preceding paragraph can be brought before the court of registration of the society of each member of the society or his body or by the prosecutor within one month of learning about them, but no later than one year from the date of decision.

Conducting a General Assembly

Article 26

- (1) The General Assembly is held every two years - a regular General Assembly.
- (2) The General Assembly may be convened at any time by the Management Board - Extraordinary General Meeting.

Convening of the General Meeting

Article 27

- (1) The General Assembly is convened by the Management Board on its own initiative or at the request of one third of the members of the society.
- (2) If within two weeks of the request for convening the General Assembly Management Board does not send a written notice for convening, a General Assembly shall be convened by the court at the headquarters of the society on written request of the member or person authorized by them.
- (3) The convocation is done by written invitation placed on the notice board in the building where the headquarters of the society are, published on the official website of the society and in one daily newspaper.
- (4) The invitation contains the agenda of issues for discussion, date, time and place of the General Assembly and whose is the initiative.
- (5) The time of the invitation to the opening of the General Assembly cannot be less than 30 days.

Right to information

Article 28.

The written materials related to the agenda of the General Assembly should be available to members of the General Assembly. They shall be given to every member free.

List of participants

Article 29.

(1) At the session of the General Assembly a list of members present or their representatives is completed. Members and representatives certify their presence by signing and identity.

(2) The list in the preceding paragraph shall include members who have declared their presence until the first vote after the establishment of a quorum.

Quorum

Article 30.

The General Assembly can meet if more than half of all members are present or being presented. In case of lack of quorum, Management Board schedule a new session one hour later at the same place with the same agenda regardless of the number of members.

Right to vote

Article 31.

Each regular member has one vote in the General Assembly. Honorary and Associate Members are entitled to a deliberative vote in the General Assembly.

Conflict of interests

Article 32.

A General Assembly member has no right to vote in addressing issues relating:

1. them, their husband / wife or lineal relatives - without limitation, collateral - up to the fourth degree or by marriage - to second degree;
2. legal entities in which they are a manager or can impose or block decisions.

Majority

Article 33.

(1) Decisions of the General Assembly shall be adopted by a majority of those present, each member having one vote.

(2) The amendment of the charter, dissolution of the society or its transformation, are taken by a majority of two thirds of members present.

(3) Decisions of the General Meeting shall be adopted by open vote unless specifically decided at the General Assembly for a secret ballot.

Decisions

Article 34.

- (1) The General Assembly may not adopt resolutions on matters that were not included in the announced agenda, unless all members are present or represented at the meeting and no one objects issues to be discussed.
- (2) The General Assembly decisions shall enter into force immediately, unless their effect is delayed or if the law imposes their publication.

Protocol

Article 35.

- (1) Every session of the General Assembly has a protocol.
- (2) The protocol of the General Meeting shall be signed by the Chairperson and protocol keeper. Protocols consist of the list of attendees and documents related to the convening of the General Assembly.
- (3) Each member present at the General Meeting has the right to request and monitor the accurate recording of decisions in the protocol.

Chairperson, Vice-chairpersons and Secretary of the Management Board

Article 36.

- (1) The Association is represented by the Chairperson of the Board, elected by the General Assembly for a term of 4 (four) years.
- (2) The Chairperson of the Board is entitled to perform all actions and transactions that are related to the activities of the society, to represent it and to authorize other persons to perform certain actions.
- (3) The Chairperson of the Board:
 1. organizes the implementation of decisions of the Board;
 2. organizes the activities of the society carried out its operational management, provides management and protection of its property;
 3. concludes labor contracts and civil contracts with the employees and the employees of the society persons;
 4. represents the society and perform the functions assigned to it by the Board.

Article 37.

- (1) Honorary Chairperson of the Management Board may be capable individual, Bulgarian or foreign citizen with a particularly large contribution to the development of forensic medicine or with proven contribution to the subject of activity, goals and objectives of the society.
- (2) Honorary Chairperson, elected by the General Assembly for a term of 4 (four) years is entitled to vote in the General Assembly and deliberative vote in the Management Board of the society.
- (3) The honorary chairperson is exempt from annual membership fees as well as fees for participation in scientific events organized by the society.

Article 38.

The two vice-chairpersons elected by the General Assembly for a term of 4 (four) years, assist the Chairperson in their activities and present them during absence.

Article 39.

Secretary elected by the General Meeting for a term of 4 (four) years, shall assist the Chairperson in their activities and is responsible for the protocols and the overall documentation of the society and supports them, organizes the meetings of the Board, organizes information services for members of the society, led organization collection of fees and other.

Article 40.

- (1) Board members are elected by the General Assembly for a term of 4 (four) years.
- (2) The Management Board consists of five (5) persons who are members of the society.
- (3) The Board consists of a chairperson, two vice chairpersons, a secretary and a member.

Article 41.

- (1) The Board shall perform their duties in the interest of the society. Persons entering the composition of the Board are obliged to keep the secrets of the society and after they leave their position.
- (2) The Management Board shall adopt rules of procedure.
- (3) The Board shall hold regular meetings at least once every four (4) months to discuss the status and development of the society.
- (4) The meetings of the Management Board shall be convened and chaired by the Chairperson.
- (5) In the absence of the Chairperson, the meeting shall be chaired by an elected with a decision of the Board member.
- (6) The Chairperson shall convene a meeting at the written request of one third of its members. If the Chairperson does not convene a board meeting within a week, it can be called by any interested member of the Management Board.

Article 42.

Management board:

1. Represent the Society and determine the extent of representative power of individual members;
2. Ensure the imposition of the decisions of the General Assembly;
3. Dispose of the assets of the society in compliance with the charter;
4. Prepare and submit to the General Assembly a draft budget;
5. Prepare and submit to the General Assembly activity report;
6. Determine the order and organize the activities of the society and is responsible for this;
7. Determine the address of the society;
8. Admit and expel members of the society;
9. Convene regular or extraordinary general assemblies;
10. Adopt the financial plan and program of activities of the society;
11. Interact with related associations and other organizations at home and abroad to implement the objectives of the society, presenting opinions and / or experts for optimal resolving contentious issues and case studies in the field of medicine and healthcare;

12. Carry out other activities that are not the exclusive competence of the general meeting.

Article 43.

(1) Decisions may be taken if more than half the members of the Board in person or represented by another member of the council. No present may represent more than one absent.

(2) The Attendee person with whom there is a telephone or other communication, ensuring the identification and allowing participation in the discussion and decision-making. The vote of this member shall be certified in the protocol by the chairperson of the meeting.

(3) Decisions are taken by simple majority, except for Article 14, paragraph 2 and 31, 3 and 6 of the Law for Non-profit organizations taken by a majority of all members.

(4) The Board may take decisions without holding a meeting, the minutes of the decisions taken is signed without remarks and objections by all board members.

(5) Except where expressly specified in this Charter, the Board decided by a majority of all members to:

1. significant change in the activity of the society;
2. significant organizational changes;
3. The long-term cooperation essential for the society or termination of such cooperation.

Article 44.

(1) Members of the Board are jointly responsible for actions which harm the interests of the association.

(2) Each member of the Council may be released from liability if it is found not guilty for any damages.

Article 45

Persons on the Board are entitled remuneration determined by the General Assembly.

Supervisory Board

Article 46

(1) Members of the Supervisory Board are elected by the General Assembly for a term of 4 (four) years.

(2) The Supervisory Board consists of 3 (three) members who are members of the society. It includes the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board as well.

(4) The Supervisory Board performs control functions with proper protocol of the society and its documentation.

(5) The Supervisory Board shall submit to the General Assembly a report on its findings and suggestions for future work.

(6) As regards the meetings of the Supervisory Board, voting and decision making, the relevant rules of the Board.

Article 47.

(1) The decisions of the organs of the society taken contrary to law, statute or a previous decision of the General Assembly may be challenged before the general assembly at the request of interested members of the society or its body made within one month of learning but no later than one year from the date of the decision.

(2) Disputes in the preceding paragraph can be brought before the court of registration of the association of each member of the society or his body or by the prosecutor within one month of learning about them, but no later than one year from the date of decision.

Ethics Commission

Article 48.

(1) The Ethics Commission is an expert body assisting of members of the Society with a mandate 4 (four) years.

(2) A member of the Ethics Commission can be any member of the society.

(3) The number of members of the Ethics Commission is 3 / three / people. This includes the Chairperson of the Ethics Commission.

(4) The members of the Ethics Commission and its Chairperson are elected by the Board of the Association.

(5) To ensure a high professional level in various directions of activity of the society, the members of the Ethics Commission may attract experts according to their professional orientation to participate in its activities and in the development of various projects and programs and in the organization of their implementation.

(6) The Ethics Commission shall meet at least once every 6 / six / months, the meetings shall be convened by the Chairperson.

(7) The Ethics Commission has the following powers:

1. To initiate and conduct proceedings under this Charter;

2. To propose sanctions to be imposed when violations are registered;

3. To monitor jointly with the Management Board to manage the implementing of the goals and objectives of the association.

Production

Article 49.

(1) Production is formed by the Commission decision in a written message from state bodies, legal or individuals, including members of the society, including author publications in the media, which contain sufficient evidence of a violation of professional ethics by member of the association.

(2) Anonymous posts do not constitute a reason for disciplinary proceedings.

(3) Sufficient evidence to initiate disciplinary proceedings are present when one can make a reasonable assumption for a violation

Article 50.

(1) Upon receipt of a notice of violation Supervisory Board is obliged to inform members of the society who can give an explanation within 7 days of notification.

(2) After the deadline under par. 1 The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board assigns to a rapporteur of the Commission the verification of the existence of grounds for instituting proceedings. The check should be carried out within one month.

(3) The rapporteur may be objected to by the Supervisory Board as a member of the society has reasonable doubts as to their impartiality. The rapporteur is obliged to resign themselves, if they are aware of circumstances that could cast doubt on their impartiality. In the event of disqualification the Board Chairperson appoints a new rapporteur.

(4) After the check in the first meeting of the Board, the rapporteur reports in written of the outcome. At the same meeting the Board shall make a decision. If necessary, the Board makes provision for further examination within 14 days. New return check is unacceptable.

Article 51.

(1) In its decision the Supervisory Board may:

1. propose to the Board of the Society to decide to exclude the member of the society;

2. propose to the competent authorities empowered to impose sanctions and / or penalties to impose a penalty and / or to acquit them;

(2) The decision is taken to a secret meeting by a majority of the Board and announced through its reading by the Board Chairperson.

(3) If a member of the Board disagrees with the opinion of the majority shall sign the decision with the dissenting opinion, which is attached to the decision.

Article 52.

The Board's decision is sent to the structures in which the employee renders the member of the society and / or the National Health Insurance Fund and / or the Ethics Committee of the RC on BMA and / or the Board of the Society that has the power to impose sanctions and / or sanctions.

Article 53.

(1) The costs of the disciplinary proceedings are paid by the penalties in the case of acquittal - at the expense of the society.

(2) In the event that the owned expenses are not paid by the penalties of the Society, the Management Board makes a proposal for exclusion of that member.

V. Society's Documents

Article 54.

(1) At General Assemblies and at Management Board meetings, a protocol shall be kept, in which the discussions taken place, proposals and statements and decisions are included. The protocol shall be certified by the signatures of the Chairperson of the subsequent Board and the recorder and bound in special books. The books are kept by expressly designated member of the organ. The members of the society and board members can examine the contents of the protocol books and receive copies or extracts.

(2) The Society keeps a book of its members, in which all data certifying the individual or legal entity is included.

VI. TERMINATION AND LIQUIDATION

Grounds for termination

Article 55.

The Society shall be terminated:

1. after decision of the General Assembly;
2. if it is declared bankrupt;
3. with a decision of the district court of the society in accordance to the Law for legal non-profit event;

Liquidation

Article 56.

(1) Upon termination of the Society liquidation must occur.

(2) The liquidation is carried out by the Management Board of the society or their nominee - a liquidator.

(3) If the liquidator is not appointed under par. 2, as in the case of Art. 55 pt. 1, it is determined by the district court of the legal non-profit entity.

(4) Subject to insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation procedure and the powers of the liquidator are provisioned by the Commerce Law. In terms of legal non-profit entities subject to entry in the commercial register, acts of the bankruptcy from the court are entered in the register of non-profit organizations and published in the "Official Gazette".

(5) Remaining after payment to the creditors shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the Law in such cases, by the Management Board.

VII. TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 57.

Bulgarian Society of Forensic Medicine has a round seal with the inscription „БЪЛГАРСКО ДРУЖЕСТВО ПО СЪДЕБНА МЕДИЦИНА”.

Article 58.

The association may have printed or electronic organ.

Article 59.

Print or electronic organ serves for reflection and promotion activities of the Society and its branches.

Article 60.

Changes to this Charter may be under the procedures provided therein and the Law for non-profit organizations.

Article 61.

The interpretation or application of the provisions of this Charter shall apply to the general Bulgarian legislation and the provisions of the Law for non-profit organizations.

Article 62.

This Charter was adopted by the General Assembly of Bulgarian Society Of Forensic Medicine, held on 03.10.2015 at 15.00 in the boardroom "Vasil Karaivanov" of the Municipality of Karlovo, Karlovo 4300, str. "Petko Subev" 1.